Andy Pittman

Trademark Paralegal

Andy brings 30 years of trademark experience to Kelly IP, LLP. He began his career in New Orleans, first as a Paralegal at the American Civil Liberties Union, and then for a law firm where he assisted with numerous federal court litigation matters. Since relocating to Washington, DC in 1989, Andy has focused on domestic and foreign trademark prosecution. In particular, Andy has extensive experience handling large-scale trademark portfolio management, trademark search and clearance work, trademark prosecution, as well as trademark litigation. Andy has worked for some of the world's most famous brands, both domestically and internationally.

In his spare time he enjoys equestrian activities and spending time with his spouse, family and friends.

Andy holds an ABA Approved Certificate of Paralegal Studies from University of New Orleans.
