Clint Taylor

Associate

Clint Taylor focuses his practice on trademark and copyright counseling, prosecution, enforcement, and litigation. He has spent his career helping clients of all sizes navigate the trademark registration process. He provides practical advice to clients to assist them in selecting and enforcing their trademarks consistent with their goals. He has helped clients prioritize and strategize their brand protection efforts in markets outside the United States. Clint represents clients before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board including authoring a winning trial brief. He also assists clients in all aspects of litigation in federal district courts. Clint also has experience assisting clients to protect their intellectual property through contractual rights including licensing and terms of use.

Prior to joining Kelly IP, Clint was an associate at a general practice firm in Texas where he focused on all aspects of trademark, copyright, and computer law. Clint graduated magna cum laude from Texas Tech School of Law. While in law school, he tutored first-year law students. He received his B.A. magna cum laude with honors from Texas Tech University in marketing and international business. Clint is admitted to practice in DC and Texas.
